IMPORTANT: UAE LAW AND PROCESS FOR ENTRY WITH FIREARMS

All athletes are required to bring their own firearm, as well as being responsible for obtaining the necessary permits and transportation throughout the Games period.

All athletes are responsible and recommended to confirm any further special requirements with airlines regarding the carriage of firearms.

For International Athletes the following procedures need to be followed:

1. Obtain an Import Permit: Apply for a permit to import civilian weapons through the UAE Ministry of Interior's e-service portal. This process typically requires coordination with the event organizers and submission of necessary documentation Ministry of Interior Emirates.
2. Coordinate with Event Organisers: Engage with the Open Masters Games organisers to ensure compliance with specific event-related protocols for firearm handling and storage.
3. Airport Procedures: Upon arrival, declare firearms to customs authorities. Firearms will be secured by the police and transported to the event venue. Athletes will not have personal custody of firearms outside the competition premises.
4. Ammunition Regulations: Importing personal ammunition is prohibited. Event organisers will provide all necessary ammunition for the competition for a fee
5. Firearm Handling During the Event: Firearms must remain unloaded and secured in appropriate cases when not in use. They should only be handled within designated areas under supervision. After each competition session, firearms must be returned to the secure storage at the venue which will be managed by the authorities in conjunction with the competition venue management.

Participants should follow these recommendations for the Open Masters Games:

- Early Engagement: Initiate contact with the Open Masters Games organisers well in advance to facilitate the necessary approvals and logistical arrangements.
- Documentation: Ensure all required documents, including import permits and event invitations, are obtained and carried during travel.
- Compliance: Strictly adhere to all guidelines provided by UAE authorities and event organisers regarding firearm handling and usage.

For detailed information and to apply for the necessary permits, visit the UAE Ministry of Interior's official e-services portal: Import Permit for Civilian Weapons.
